

“Can I join your football team?”

Maria asked her brothers.

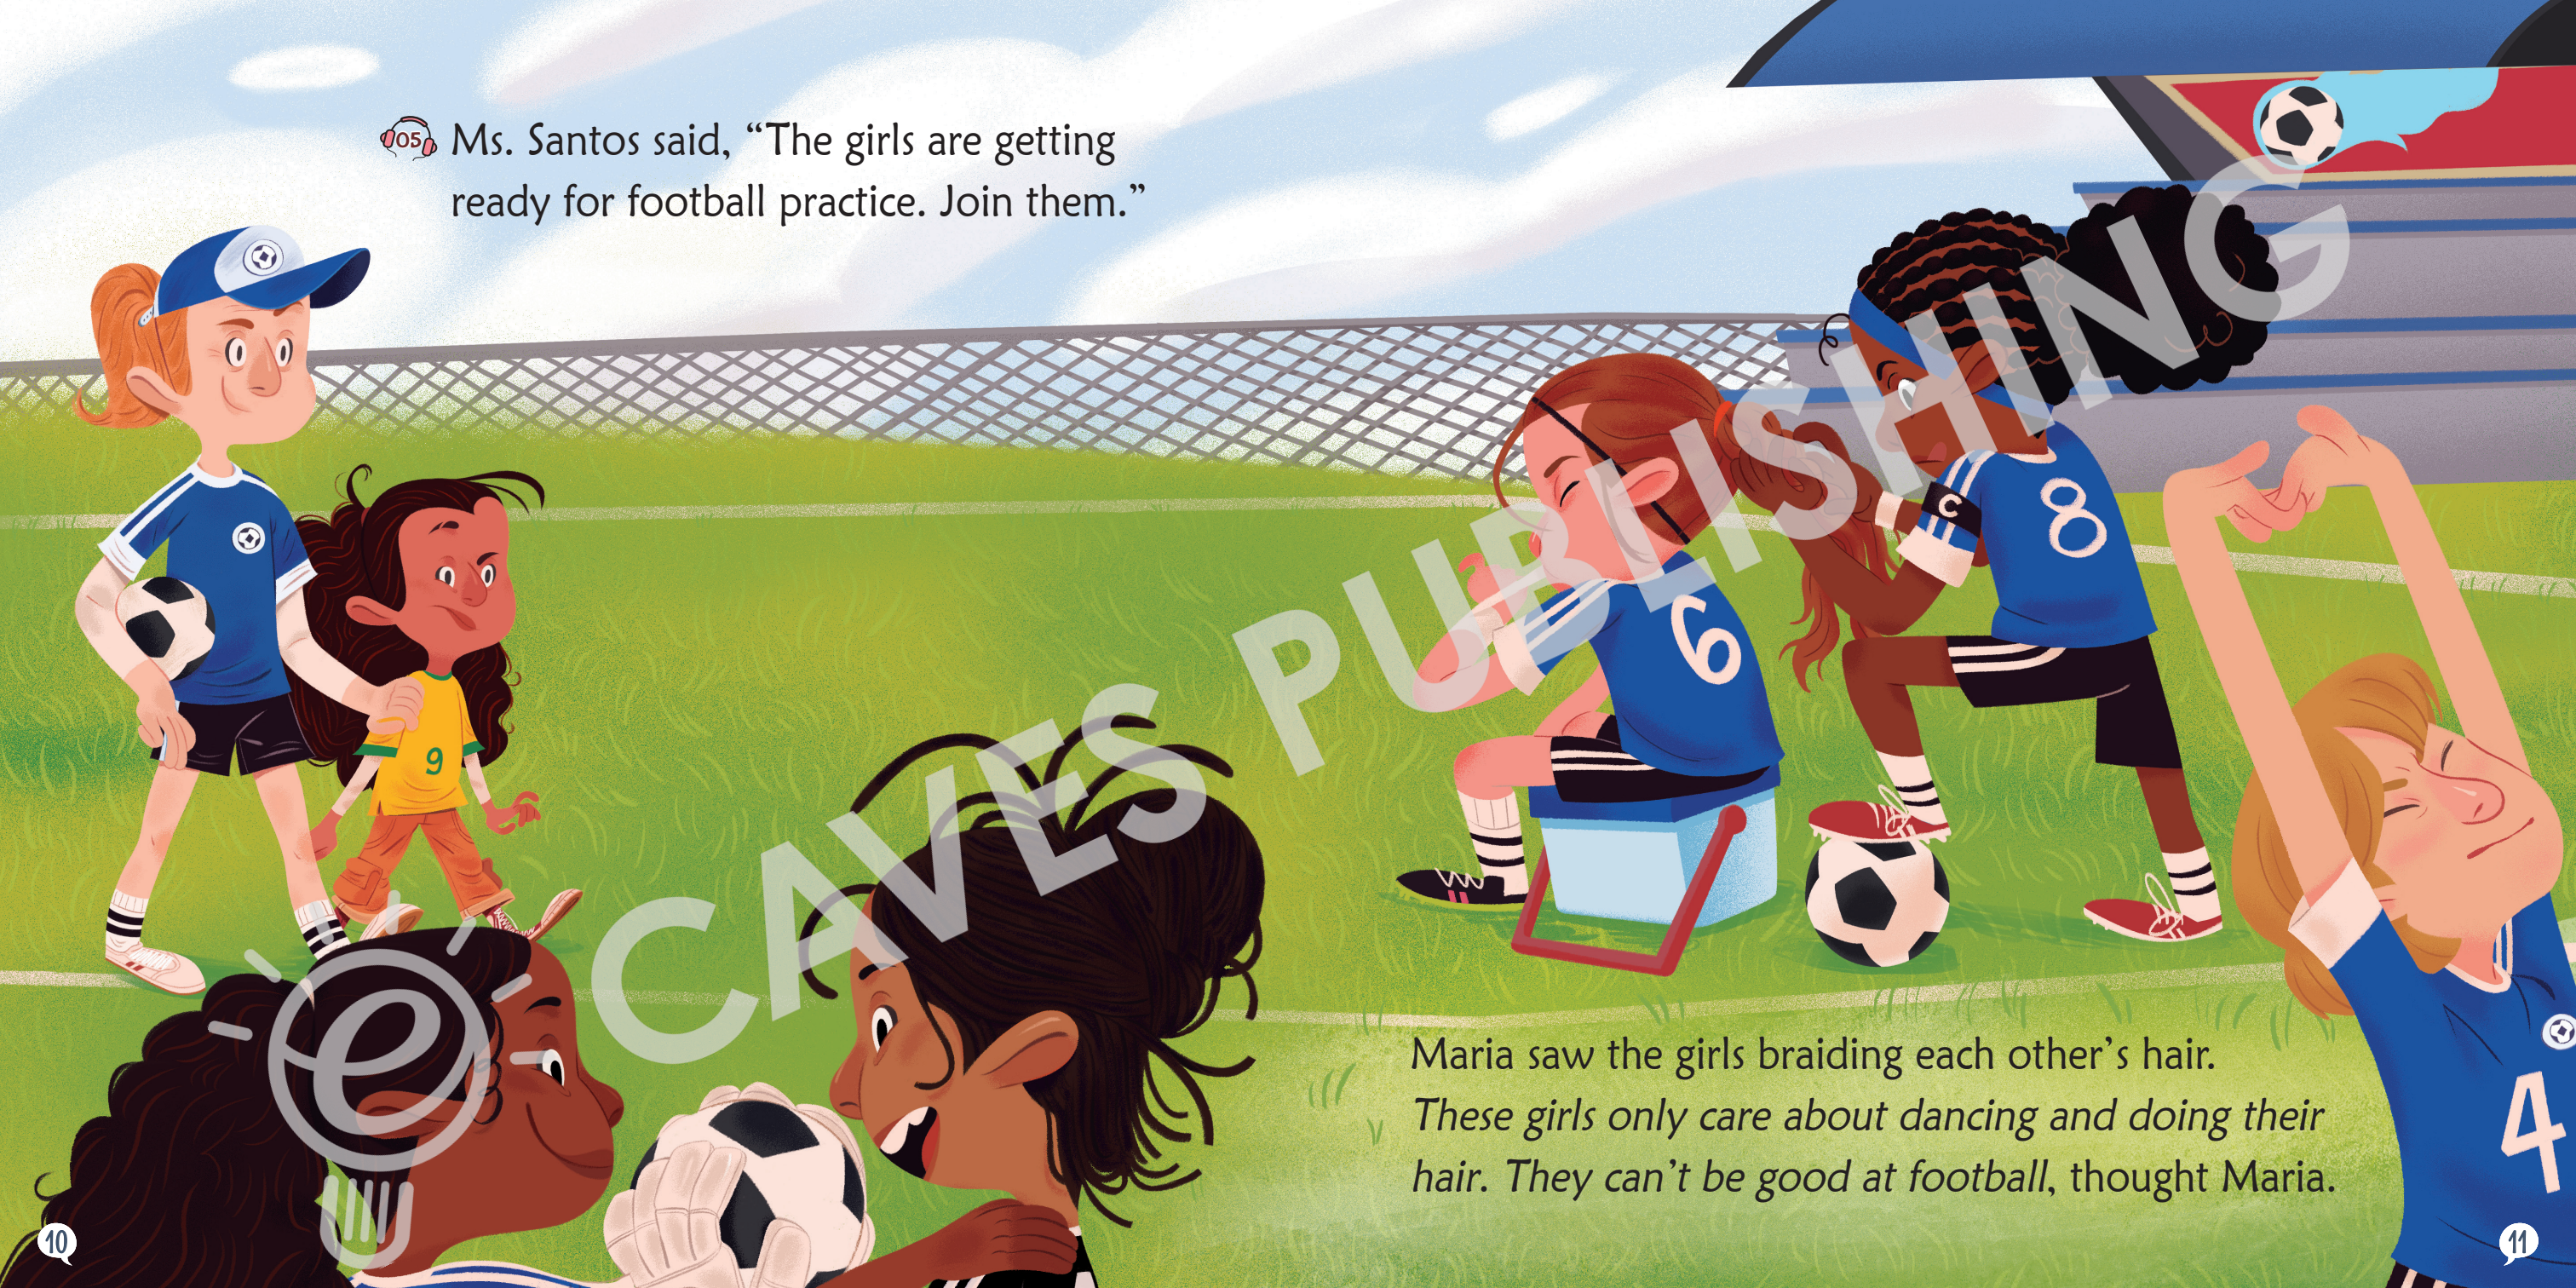

“Sorry, boys only,” said Miguel.

“Go play with the girls over there,” said Carlos.

The girls were practicing the dance for Festa Junina.

05 Ms. Santos said, “The girls are getting ready for football practice. Join them.”

Maria saw the girls braiding each other's hair. These girls only care about dancing and doing their hair. They can't be good at football, thought Maria.
